Hello [REDACTED]

b6 -2

The Prepublication Review is 30 days from receipt of your paper, unless it has to be reviewed by any other division or agency. You can submit your paper all at once or when you get a chapter done. Give yourself plenty of time, if you can. We do our best to get these done in a timely manner, so you can graduate on time. I see by some of your previous emails that you are interviewing different people. Anyone above an ASAC is releasable, without their written permission. If they are below an ASAC, please get their permission. We do not have a standard form for permission. It can be just a blurb saying they give you permission to use their name in your thesis and they sign and date it.

I hope this helps. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you

From: Vandegrift, Serina N.
 Sent: Wednesday, January 20, 2010 8:27 AM
 To: [REDACTED]
 Subject: updated draft
 Attachments: Vandegrift FBI Jan 2010 B.doc

b6 -2

Attached is the latest draft of my entry for the Encyclopedia on Biodefense. As I mentioned a couple of weeks ago, ALL my sources are open source. For the Laboratory Division section and its associated programs, I received input from [REDACTED] For a description of the Intelligence Section embedded w/in the WMDD, I received the OK from [REDACTED] I asked the WMDD's AD Sr. Policy Advisor to review the draft and he made a couple of comments of wh/I incorporated the changes to the attached draft. The Sr. Policy Advisor is [REDACTED]

b6 -2

b7E -7

I still need to "Blue Book" my cites wh/is the proper format for legal citations but that should not have an impact on the review of the substantive material in the draft.

The following is the by-line I drafted for the entry:

Serina N. Vandegrift addresses Weapons of Mass Destruction policy issues at the Federal Bureau of Investigation Headquarters. [emphasis added] Ms. Vandegrift [REDACTED]

b6 -2

[REDACTED] The views, opinions, and research herein represent the product of the author only.

[REDACTED] told me that she thought it was inappropriate that I "put yourself out there as [REDACTED] when you are not." I told her I disagreed and requested she clarify how I had done so. She stated my by-line "makes you out to be [REDACTED] and again, you are not." She told me she forwarded my by-line to an ethics person in OIC b/c I put myself out there as [REDACTED] I do not know who the ethics person is and I have not heard from anyone. I do not believe the by-line can be construed that I am holding myself out to be a [REDACTED] I am [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] I think stating that I "address WMDD policy issues at the Federal level" clearly sets forth my work position at the FBI. I never use the term [REDACTED] Prior to submission, I reviewed my by-line w/a few colleagues at the office to avoid issues such as this.

I am confused by the process. I thought my supervisor, [REDACTED] is supposed to review my draft for any information that may be classified. Instead, my draft is forwarded to [REDACTED] who reviews it and then tells me it is not w/in her jurisdiction to do so and does not offer feedback w/r/t the inaccuracies she verbally told me are present. She states she forwarded my draft to OGC and OIC (ethics) and that I need to wait to hear back from pre-pub after OGC has reviewed it. She also stated that the WMDD Front Office needs to approve the draft. However, your office has not reached out to any offices, that I know of. W/all due respect, this seems like a lot of approvals for an entry that is a personal product ... one that includes a disclaimer in the by-line. I searched the RMD website for guidance w/r/t the approval process. I want to follow procedure and correct/amend my material as necessary but at the same time, I do not want to delay my submission to the publisher.

Any guidance you can provide is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,
 Serina

Hello [REDACTED]

b6 -2

Attached is an article intended for publication on PoliceOne.com, submitted for review. I'm currently [REDACTED] but I wanted to submit this now as I'm not sure when I'll return [REDACTED] and the topic is timely.

Also, I sent several chapters of Advanced Concepts in Defensive Tactics: A Survival Guide for Law Enforcement. I wanted to make sure you had received them. I should have the remaining chapters ready for submission to you within the next couple of weeks. I have a contract with CRC Press with a deadline of May 2010. I have advised them that the Pre-Publication review and approval is required, which they understand. But if there are going to be any delays, I want to advise them.

Thank you Kay for all of your help.

Thank you for doing the pre-publication review of this presentation. As mentioned in the attached email, the presentation is to a group of accountants at the South Bend, Indiana, branch of the Crowe Horvath accounting firm. It will be on my own time and I will receive no benefit, not even a meal. The presentation will not be advertised publicly and attendance will be limited to accountants at the firm.

I have presented on Enron several times and the material is always the same. As an example of the presentation, I have attached a 40 page PowerPoint presentation that [REDACTED] and I have used in the past. The information is all public source and the hyperlinks are to scenes from either the movie "Fun with Dick and Jane" or "The Enron Movie". I do not intend to use any of the hyperlinks in this presentation.

I expect some in depth discussion concerning the "Raptor" structured finance accounting scheme and the "Global Galactic" agreement. Both were described in detail during the testimony in the Ken Lay/Jeff Skilling trial. They have also been written about extensively in the books "Smartest Guys in the Room" and "Conspiracy of Fools".

I am sure I omitted details you need so, if you have any questions, please give me a call at [REDACTED] or contact me via email.
